In September 1932 one hundred forty-two green little freshmen entered high school, and chose as their leaders James Weir, president; Theodore Eichler, vice-president; John Proesal, secretary-treasurer. The first class party proved to be a great success, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

As Sophomores Helen Williams was the head manager, assisted by Betty Ann Lusted and Thomas Kelehan. The Sophomore party in November brought much enjoyment, as did another one held in May.

The Junior year was one filled with fun and entertainment. The Seniors entertained the Juniors in March, and the Juniors reciprocated and brought a climax to a busy year with the Junior-Senior Prom.

In Declamatory and Musical contests the Juniors were well represented, and the class play, "Polly of the Circus" brought good entertainment and profit.

The Junior Class advisers are Mr. Spain and Miss Innes.
